POEM - WHY?

1. Name a few things that sink.

Ans. Some things that sink are lead, marble and stone.

2. List the questions that the little boy asks.

Ans. (a) Why do lead and marble sink?

(b) Why does sun shine?

(c) Why does wind blow?

3. What sort of a boy is described in the poem?

Ans. Curious.

4. Ram is curious little boy. He is always asking questions. One day he came home and asked his grandfather questions like:

(a) Why can't we look at the sun during solar eclipse?

Ans. We can't look at the sun during solar eclipse because it hides itself behind the moon.

(b) Why can't we touch the sun?

Ans. Sun is far away from us therefore we can't touch the sun.

(c) Why can't we go out to play in the dark?

Ans. Our eyes can't see anything in the dark hence we can't play in the dark.

5. Fill in the blanks with words from the poem which rhyme with the underlined words in the sentences.

Ans. Why is the sky so high?
Do you know the colour of snow?
Have you found who made the sound?
Put the glass in the sink after you finish your milk?

6. The spellings of these words are jumbled. Put them right and make sentences of your own:

Ans.

Wokn	Know	I know the way to my house.
Wism	Swim	I can swim.
Dael	Lead	Lead is a heavy substance.
Blarme	Marble	Our house has marble flooring.
llihs	hills	Sun sets behind the hills.

7. Discuss and write:

(a) Why do cats and dogs fight?

Ans. Both cats and dogs love milk. They usually fight over milk. Also, they are fearful of each other and hence fight.

(b) Why do we walk across the road, not run?

Ans. While crossing the road, we do not run because running may lead to accidents. Instead, we walk while judging the vehicles on the road and thus save ourselves as well as others.

(c) Why do people like ice-cream?

Ans. Ice-cream is a cool desert. It has a good taste hence, people like ice-cream.

8. Write down at least two questions using ‘why’

Ans. (a) Why is the sky blue?
(b) Why do flowers have fragrance?
